BLIND PIG ABATEMENT LAW MAKES PROPERTY OWNERS RESPONSIBLE FOR ALL IL- LEGAL LIQUOR SELLING.

The new law against illegal liquor selling, passed by the Legislature and signed by Governor Johnson, is now in effect. Its provisions are similar to the redlight abatement law. The property owner is made responsible for its violations.

Any property owner, whose building is occupied by hotel, restaurant, lodging house, blacksmith shop, barber shop, or business house of any kind, is liable to arrest and prosecution if occupants sell or give away liquor in any of these places.

If in any public building like city hall, court house or hall of records, the city and county will be held responsible for such violation.

This law was not opposed by the liquor men, but was favored by them for the reason that blind pigs are so numerous in the license cities that they lessen the sales of the liquor men who pay license fees.

This law is far reaching in its effects and it is now up to the officers, backed by the people, to see that it is rigidly enforced.

The blind pigs, as well as the saloon, must go. Their day of reckoning has come.

FEW PHYSICIANS NOW PRESCRIBE LIQUORS WHICH ARE NOW STRUCK OFF DRUG LIST.

The drug store "blind pig" is doomed. No "blind pig" harbored by any druggist is now so bereft of vision that he will not be able to see clearly after January 1, 1916, that the game is up.

Sight is to be restored to the drug store "blind pigs" by a major operation performed by fifty-one of the foremost physicians of the United States, constituting the national pharmacopoeia committee. The operation which has already been performed consisted of cutting whisky and brandy from the new edition of the United States pharmacopoeia.

This means that whisky and brandy have been declared officially to be neither drugs nor medicine. The new edition of the pharmacopoeia will be issued about January 1, 1916, and after that time brandy and whisky cannot legally be sold by the druggists as medicine.

After that time it will be necessary for the druggist to banish whisky and brandy from his store or take out a retail liquor dealer's license and become classed as a saloonkeeper.

The action of the pharmacopoeia committee is recognized as a severe blow to the liquor traffic. The step also will put out of business a number of patent medicines which practically are little more than whisky or brandy and are chiefly valued for that character.

It is known that one of the main reasons why the revision committee took action as it did is that comparatively few physicians now prescribe liquor even as a tonic. The number of persons who obtain from their physicians a prescription for whisky or brandy is small. Even so-called "pure malt whiskies" will be tabooed by the new order.

THE ECONOMIC SIDE.

(Stockton Record.)

Take half the corn crop, add to it the cotton crop and the wheat crop in the United States, and the total value is what is spent for liquor in the United States in one year. The yearly saloon bill is $2,250,000,000.

There is no economic defense for liquor. If it is to be defended at all it must be on the basis of the value of the temporary exhilaration produced by alcohol, and this defense would hold equally well for the use of cocaine, morphine, heroin or any other drug.

If the amount spent for liquor in a year in the United States were used for educating the rising generation, the result would be three times as much education as is now given. At least, we spend only one-third as much for education in a year, namely $750,000,000, as we do for liquor. This carries some of our children—approximately 19,000,000 of them—through the elementary school, and another 1,374,000 through the secondary or high schools, public and private, while only 216,000 get into the colleges and universities.

Perhaps some of the liquor money could be used to advantage in teaching useful occupations to children in the elementary schools and sending a larger percentage of the growing generation to the higher schools.

FOR SHAME, CHICO!

It may not be true, because it is printed in a Hearst paper, but the Hearst paper prints what purports to be a dispatch from Chico saying that "on account of the great number of petty offenders the City of Chico has established a chain gang," which "will not be exclusively for men, but women who violate the law will be handed a broom and forced to sweep the streets."

If that statement is true, Chico should be ashamed of herself. In the first place, a chain gang never cured anything, never reformed anyone, never made anyone better—and certainly never added anything to the beauty of a city. In the next place, a public official who puts a woman in a chain gang should be put in that woman's place.

But it is possible that the Hearst paper has maligned Chico.—San Francisco Star.

GOVERNOR CAPPER PRAISES KANSAS AS DRY STATE.

There are half a million boys and girls in Kansas who never saw a saloon, Governor Capper of that state, remarked in an address at the Panama-Pacific exposition. His speech was delivered from the steps of the Kansas building in celebration of Kansas day.

"If it is good to live in Kansas, it is because the people of Kansas have made it so," said Governor Capper. Kansas people have never dodged a difficulty, nor refused to face an issue. Kansas is now a good place in which to live, largely because thirty years ago we dared to make the open saloon an outlaw, because we were not afraid to attack a curse as ancient as human history, and put it from us for ever.

"I am immensely proud of the fact that Kansas has half million boys and girls who never saw an open saloon. And now that national prohibition and world-wide prohibition are coming just as surely as tomorrow's sunrise. Kansas has done, is doing and will do more to bring this great blessing about than any other state."

"No presidential bee can live in alcohol," said Rev. Boynton of Chicago. And it has passed into an epigram.

MRS. EMILY HOPPIN LAID AWAY

A large crowd of sorrowing friends, many from a distance, gathered at the Hoppin home Saturday at 9 a.m. to look upon the face for the last time of one whom they loved and honored. The services were conducted by Archdeacon D. E. Holt of the Episcopal church, of which Mrs. Hoppin was a member.

Music at the house and at the grave was rendered by Mrs. Pierce, Miss Prior, C. W. Bush and A. W. Fox. At the cemetery Mrs. Walter Longbotham sang "Rest in the Lord."

The floral offerings were elaborate and beautiful. The Yolo clubs sent a large vacant chair, and the Thursday club a gates ajar, the state W. C. T. U. and the Yolo County W. C. T. U. each sent a large piece all being silent testimonials of the great love the members had for their co-worker.

The pall bearers were Leroy Coil, John L. Stephens, W. H. Grant, C. W. Thomas, Jr., W. F. Mixon, B. Borach, Wilson Scarlett and A. S. Abele.

HONORARY PALL BEARERS.

The honorary escort was composed of Mrs. E. D. Knight, of San Francisco, vice-president of the Federation of Women's clubs, Mrs. Sara J. Dorr, state president of the Woman's Christian Temperance union, Mrs. B. F. Walton, of Sacramento, state secretary of the federation, Mrs. Bradford Woodbridge, president of the Northern California section of the federation, Mrs. Walter Longbotham, of Sacramento, chairman of the music department, Mrs. W. S. Kendall, of Sacramento, chairman of the water department, Miss Lillian Clark of Berkeley, chairman of the country life department, Mrs. Fisher R. Clarke, of Stockton, president of the Alameda section of the federation, Mrs. J. L. Harbough, chairman of the legislative department, Mrs. G. W. McCoy, of Sacramento, Mrs. Anne De Yo, state secretary of the W. C. T. U., Mrs. Anna E. K. Bidwell, of Chico, Mrs. S. A. Huston of Woodland, Mrs. J. E. Scarlett of Yolo, Mrs. Julia Adams of Woodland, Mrs. H. E. Coil of Woodland, Mrs. F. W. Blanchard of Woodland.

CLUBWOMEN MOURN FOR LEADER

California's clubwomen have been overwhelmed this week with the news of the sudden death of their beloved president. From one end of the State to the other the grief and mourning over the demise of Mrs. Emily Hoppin has been sincere. For, aside from the prominence of her office, which in itself would have made the news of her death a blow, Mrs. Hoppin was loved and admired as a friend by all of the thousands of women who enrolled under the California federation banner.

She had scarcely started upon the work to which she had been called. True, she had been making plans for the year, outlining the tremendous amount of work she hoped to be able to accomplish. Last Saturday she held her first big board meeting, with a score of the State officers present, and to them she showed a glimpse of the plans she had formulated for the year.

Her passing has taken from the California federation not only its chief officer, but one of its very foremost women. In all of the ranks of the California federation there can with difficulty be found her equal. Those who were associated with her in official capacity in the district or State knew her as a woman of broad understanding and sympathy, of keenest wit and kindly humor, of bright intellect and quick understanding.

At a convention of the Alameda district of the federation, held last year Mrs. Hoppin was one of the speakers. She read a paper on "Country Life," a subject on which she was amply qualified to speak and concerning which she felt deeply.

Mrs. Hoppin's presentation of the paper was the supreme feature of the convention programme. Delegates and visitors were unanimous in declaring it to be the best bit contributed to the programme. And more than one woman was led to wonder why, with such talent at hand in their own ranks, club programme chairmen went far afield to gather in obscure men with queer notions or self-styled artistic women to present some personal fad or fancy.

NEW PRESIDENT

The death of Mrs. Hoppin brings the presidency back to the San Francisco district again, for Mrs. E. D. Knight, vice-president of the federation, will assume the chief executiveship. Mrs. Knight is not unknown to California's clubwomen, for she has served not only locally and in the district, but in the State as well. She was recording secretary of the State federation under Mrs. Orr, and during the biennial convention of 1915 she was chairman of the credentials committee.

Mrs. Knight will call a meeting of the State Board during the coming fortnight to provide for the filling of the vice-presidential vacancy. The board has power to fill vacancies in its own number and Mrs. Knight's promotion to the presidency will necessitate choosing a substitute for her.—Examiner.

MRS. E. D. KNIGHT'S MESSAGE TO CLUBWOMEN.

The following official statement to the clubwomen of California has been issued by Mrs. E. D. Knight.

To the Federated Clubwomen of California:

My Dear Co-Workers:

In preparing this brief and hasty message, these words of her for whom we mourn to-day keep ringing in my ears: "Let us lose no opportunity this year. We must forge ahead. Let us be charitable, kind and considerate even when we jest."

Our little world has been shaken by a great tragedy. A leader wondrous wise and exceedingly kind, has been called from our midst, and we are left wondering and groping. Federation has suffered a great loss, but we must not be discouraged nor disheartened. We must go on with the good work even as she would have us do.

The executive board will meet in a short time and will undoubtedly indorse Mrs. Hoppin's policy and reorganize for the work of the coming year.

In this our hour of sorrow, dear fellow clubwomen, let us renew our pledges of loyalty and good fellowship. Let us unite our strength and continue to strive for the better life, remembering to be "charitable, kind and considerate even when we jest."

With love and sympathy,

HELEN M. KNIGHT,

Vice President C. F. W. C.

TRIBUTE FROM A CO-WORKER

Mrs. William Addison of Guinda writes:

I wish to bear my testimony to the love we white ribboners had for our dear departed sister, Mrs. Emily Hoppin.

When I first came to Yolo county, September, 1888, I determined to join the army of white ribboners, but as we were on a homestead in the hills 20 miles away from Capay, all money had to go for what we actually had to have. So I wrote to Mrs. Hoppin, asking her if she would send me some sewing or fancy work to do so I could earn enough to pay my dues. The order came, I did the work, sent it to Mrs. Hoppin and received the money in return, a precious piece of money. I gave it to the late Mrs. Norton, asked her to enroll my name as a member of the W. C. T. U. at Tancred which she did. Since that time my name and influence has been counted on the side of saving boys and girls, men and women from the ravages of the liquor traffic. I am glad to know that Mrs. Hoppin has partaken of our hospitality at different times and we are better for having known her.

STATE COMMISSIONER COOK WRITES OF MRS. HOPPIN

A. J. Cook, state commissioner of horticulture in a letter to the Home Alliance says:

"Editor of Home Alliance:— I cannot forego the opportunity to express to all friends of the late Mrs. Emily Hoppin—and who that knew her were other than friends—a feeling of profound loss in her demise. It came as a great shock to us all. She was with us at all our late state fruit growers' conventions, and I am free to say that no others who presented papers were listened to with more pleasure and profit than was Mrs. Hoppin. Her versatility made it possible for her to discuss almost any practical topic relating to agriculture, in such an enlightening and attractive manner as to hold the absolute attention and interest of all present. Her style as a writer had rare finish, and her wide acquaintance with general as well as agricultural literature made her addresses peculiarly fascinating.

"We all know the multitudinous calls on Mrs. Hoppin for aid in nearly every cause that aids to uplift our people, yet she never hesitated to accept any call for service, even though her hands and heart were full. She was eager and willing to do for others, and thus we are all sorely bereft, and the state has lost one of its brightest and most sacrificing citizens.

"Like the late Mrs. Sherman she was one of California's truest and ablest worthies; and like that of Mrs. Sherman, her loss is irretrievable. How little we thought, as we listened to her delightful paper at Palo Alto, that it would be her last word to us! I had already arranged for an address from our deceased friend at the next state fruit growers' convention; but we shall never again have the wise, kindly message which it was her wont to bring to us.

"Yours truly,

"A. J. COOK,

"State Commissioner of Horticulture."

FUNERAL OF H. D. CARVER

From the Fresno Republican we take the following report of the funeral of H. D. Carver, the husband of Mrs. Carrie Bean Gray, who has many friends in this city:

"The funeral services for the late Hugh D. Carver were held Friday morning from the Stephens & Bean chapel. The members of the board of education attended in a body and delegations from the various lodges in which he held membership were well represented.

The Rev. H. O. Breeden gave the memorial address.

The interment was made in the Mountain View cemetery, where the Masonic ritualistic ceremony was performed.

As a tribute of respect, flags at the several schools were placed at half mast.

An ode, written by Mrs. Carrie Gray Carver, wife of the deceased, was read at the services by the Rev. Breeden, it follows:

When our lives are bright and happy

With our loved ones gathered near,
Why does death, the constant Reaper,

Come and claim the one so dear?

Would we call them back to suffer,

When they've found a brighter day?

Without warning they have left us—

Cruel Fate snatched them away.

Life is much a problem ever;
Disappointments often come;
As our dear ones journey ever;
We are drawn much "Nearer Home."

It is best for those who leave us,
For the better world above,
In the fullness of their vigor
In the fullness of our love?
We shall meet them over yonder
With so many of the blest,
And our Saviour then will answer
For your loved one it is best.

Dr. Breeden in his memorial address said in part:

Mr. Carver was a genuine American citizen, expressing from the very first year of his residence in America his intention of loyalty to the flag of Freedom, a true American. He was a man of rare grace of mind and heart. Genial, cordial and generous in disposition he sought the welfare of others before his own. His influence was widely and deeply felt in the community where he sought to serve and not be served. Like the Master whom he loved and followed, he came "not to be ministered unto but to minister," and he gave his time and talents and service in willing, glad surrender.

Every one he knew was made happier by having known him. He never failed to do a kindness for a friend. His devotion to his mother was beautiful. He often said: "She made me what I am. I owe my early training to the best mother a man ever had."

On leaving England his aged father gave his blessing and a parting benediction which he never forgot. His parting words were: "My son, always remember you are a gentleman and never forget it." And he never did forget it. He was ever true to this parting junction.

At the mature age of 43 he took to his great, unselfish heart a good and noble woman and her two fatherless daughters and gave them the best of his great hearted love, making for them an ideal home. The supreme charm of his life was its goodness. Service was his ideal of life. Not what he could get out of life, but what he could put into it. This was his supreme investment of character. He was faithful even unto death—faithful as a husband, father, citizen, business man and christian. He was dignified, courteous and likewise unpretentious and humble. There was, indeed, a genuine humility that shone in his face and was manifest in his deportment.

His noble life is his best eulogy. The history of his deeds is his most lasting epitaph. He wears a truer crown than any wreath men can weave for him. God accept him. Christ receive him.

The manager of the Ford exhibit at the Exposition said to an Esparto man "There is absolutely nothing in the rumor that there is to be a Ford day and Fords sold at $100."

TEMPERANCE CALLS TO MEN OF WORTH.

....By Fred B. Chenault.
(All musical rights reserved by the author.)

We are on the battle ground,
Where no vantage can be found
In retreat;
We are working with the Truth;
Temperance calls to men of worth,
No defeat.

We have mustered with our God,
And the stars within their orbits
With us fight;
We have sworn to live or die,
Only raise the standard high
For the right.

We are marching, God is shielding;
We are working, God is yielding
From the test;
Every social vice shall crumble
At the cross of Christ the humble
And the best.

REFRAIN.

The world is marching on,
And the sign of the Lord
Is written in the sky.
Men are watching on the height
Till the breaking of the light
And the morn.
Do you hear the coming feet
In the kingdom of the meek?
For the Lord Christ is nigh,
We will fight for liberty,
God will give the victory,
For the world is marching on.

ITALY TOO!

Without any noise and almost without discussion, the parliament of Italy not long since passed an act prohibiting the sale, except within very narrow limits and under rigid conditions, of all liquors. The government, it is said, takes this step in the interests of the Italian's efficiency as a citizen, as a workman, and as a soldier.

NEW STUDY IN THE COLLEGES.

Statistics compiled by the Intercollegiate Prohibition Association show that the liquor problem is now a subject of systematic study in some two hundred colleges of the United States. At least sixty-five universities and colleges offer course in this study for which curriculum credit is allowed. Many others are planing such courses for next year, while more than hundred have classes where credit is not given.

It is stated that less than two per cent of the men of America go through college, yet that from this two per cent the nation draws 7,700 of its 10,000 leaders in all walks of life: Hence it is seen how significant is the fact that the colleges are giving attention to the alcohol question. The grip of the "Great Destroyer" on our colleges is being broken.

JOES.

With Alberta, "Dry" and Manitoba in the waiting list it really looks like the rum traffic is on the run in Canada. In Manitoba the two principal, or dominant parties have declared themselves in accord with the progressive sentiment that spells doom for the three members of the quadripartite iniquity. African slavery and polygamy dead, and white slavery and the liquor traffic moribund, it follows that the trend of the human race must be upward. Now if kings, kaisers and czars were sent to some isolated isle and prevented from embroiling the countries in useless wars, we might look with confidence to the era of "Peace on earth, Good will to Men."

In spite of the neglected spots hereinafter mentioned Woodland is one of the prettiest cities in Northern California; and the cooperation of property owners in Woodland would establish her title beyond dispute.

There are numerous places where no division fence marks the boundaries of lots, but a half block is made a continuous lawn with an occasional shrub or bed of flowers, making it look like a small park.

The unpleasant thing to relate in this connection is the fact that there are some lots scattered here and there, even in the best residence parts of the city, that mar the whole block in which they are located. On South First Street is a lot that may well be denominated a nuisance, as it interferes with the proper use of adjoining lots, on each side, depreciates their value and detracts from the enjoyment of their owners. Until a short time ago, the foxtail and other weeds and grasses almost met across the walk, and on the lot a clump of Canada thistles ripened their seed which are carried for blocks by the slightest winds. The entire lot is covered with a heavy growth of weeds and grass which besides being an "eyesore" is a menace to the adjoining property. But, one need not go so far from Main Street to find neglected lots. One block from Main street, between Elm street and Second street are lots that should make their owners blush, "Pig-weeds" crowd the sidewalk on both sides, rendering a single-file march necessary when the pedestrians are ladies.

If the notice to lot owners to cut the weeds fronting their premises costs anything, it would be well to discontinue its publication. Nobody pays any attention to it. Those whose civic pride and interest in their homes would move them to put their premises in condition, without the notice, proceed to

THE HOME ALLIANCE

IN MEMORY OF OUR DEAR FRIEND MRS. JANE OWENS, WHO HAS GONE UP HIGHER

Life's eventide, and soft the twilight falls,

The hours creep by and all the days.

Wear the soft hues of Autumn dim
And to the weary soul insistently,

The night time calls,

The mind once filled with earth and duties near,
Has lost the bright perspective and looks back

Along the road grown dim in distance,

With longing for the past, lost, but still dear.

The night approaches with its murk
and gloom,

And from the shoulders bowed, the burdens of the day

Slip gently down and are forever more forgotten.

While the dim eyes grow glad in Heaven's bloom;

And then the Eternal morning gently
wakes,

And Heaven's joy bells ring with glad acclaim,

And angel bands, their duties leave, to bid her

Welcome home, while earth ties break.

Then Oh! the joy, and rest, and happy meetings

The vanished faces, loved, then lost,
Now found again, so filled with Heaven's light

That all of Heaven's joy is in their greetings;

And then methinks the hour for which her days,

Have been a preparation, the great white throne.

The Father's smile, and more than all,

The gentle Saviour's loving voice in words of Praise.

IN MEMORIAM.

It is with sadness, we write of our bereavement in the passing of our much loved and efficient county recording secretary Mary Elizabeth Webb, eldest daughter of Rev. J. W. and Mary Webb of Modesto.

She was born near Melbourne Victoria, Australia, February 23, 1864 and passed peacefully and painlessly away June 8th, 1915. Early in life she became a Christian and temperance worker, and was for many years a constant helper to her father in his pastoral and prohibition work, and was active in missionary work. She came to California in 1868, and began her temperance work as a member of the Good Templars and later gave her tireless, conscientious energy to the W. C. T. U.

In Fresno county she was county president, in Stanislaus and Modesto particularly she was continuously in some office and for years served acceptably, as county recording secretary. She was thoroughly domestic, never neglecting home duties, keeping the house after the death of her mother, to her father's great comfort and help in his many public duties, tenderly and assiduously caring for him.

Though much too ill for the effort, she was at her post in our recent county convention; and of her it may truthfully be said "She died in the harness." May we each emulate her example and be faithful to the cause she loved.

CONGRESS OF REFORMS PROGRAM

A Congress of Reforms will be held under the auspices of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union at San Francisco August 16-20.

Monday afternoon and evening will be given to a discussion upon the enforcement of law to close the Red Light districts.

The county presidents will give reports of what has been accomplished along that line. The reports will be made up from a questionnaire that has been sent to them for facts which they will secure from officials.

Mrs. Stella B. Irvine, president of Southern California and Mrs. Hester T. Griffith will report for Southern California. Attorney Bascom Johnson of New York will give a report of his personal investigation in San Francisco. District Attorney Barclay of Bakersfield will speak upon "Different Ways of Putting Out the Red Light." We hope also to have with us District Attorney Woolwine of Los Angeles and Dr. Lester, president of Reed's College, Portland, Oregon, Franklin Hichborn and a number of others who are well informed will enter into the discussion. We must create public sentiment for the Enforcement of the Red Light Abatement Law, and we know of no better way just now than to have this subject ably discussed.

Tuesday August 17, will be "Peace Day." Speakers are: Dr. David Starr Jordan, Mr. Robert C. Root, Mrs. Harriet T. Thomas of Chicago, who is executive secretary of the Woman's Peace Party and others. Mr. Kyo Sue Quui the Japanese Orator will speak in the evening.

On Wednesday 18, at 10:30 a. m., we will take part in a parade and demonstration; as friends of the Independent Order of Good Templars and go with them to the exposition grounds. Ex-Mayor George C. Cottrell of Seattle, Washington, will speak. Both the National and California I. O. G. T. Lodges are to be in session.

On Wednesday evening there will be an address by Hon. J. Stitt Wilson upon some phase of the Liquor problem.

Thursday afternoon there will be a "Prohibition Rally" with speakers from each of the different organizations The Campaign Federation committee, Prohibitionist, Anti-Saloon League, I. O. G. T., and W. C. T. U. The program will be followed by a social hour. It will be an opportunity for the workers to get acquainted.

Thursday evening there will be a Diamond Medal Contest under the direction, of our state superintendent Miss Luella Schwab.

Contestants from different parts of the state will take part. The music for the Congress will be under the direction of Rev. C. E. Irons of San Jose, and the Grace M. E. Church choir of San Francisco. Friday will be Congress of Reform Day at the exposition to study exhibits relating to our work.

MRS. R. M. BROWN HOSTESS AT PARTY

Renewing old acquaintances is always a pleasant task and the task, if such it may be called, is all the more pleasing when those acquaintances are old school-mates. These are the exact circumstance Tuesday when Mrs. J. S. Wood of Kauffman, Texas, was given the opportunity of renewing old friendships formed while attending the Hesperian college in this city.

Mrs. Wood, who is the guest of Mrs. R. M. Brown, was formerly Miss Maude Sidener, and by this name will be known to many of the older residents of this city. She attended the Hesperian college twenty-five years ago.

Mrs. Brown arranged the affair and about twenty-five old school-mates were invited to the Brown home to participate in a lawn party and as each guest entered the yard Mrs. Wood was given a chance to display her powers of recognition. In almost every instance she discovered the identity of the person presented.

The evening was spent in telling of incidents of their school days and in general conversation and after refreshments had been served they all listened with pleasure to the rendition of an old song, "Far Away," which was sung by the students of the old college, in which Mrs. Brown and Mrs. Wood sang a duet.

THE PASSING OF A PIONEER MOTHER

Another friend and co-worker has joined her dear ones in that land where pain and suffering are unknown. Mrs. S. A. Wyatt, passed away at her home in Winters, Wednesday, August 4. She had been an invalid for several years always patient and uncomplaining. She was 78 years old.

Mrs. Wyatt's maiden name was Sarah Ann Williams. She was a member of a large family and was born in Virginia. When she was a child the family moved to Missouri and settled near the present town of Spickard. While there she was married to J. N. B. Wyatt in 1854. Ten years later and with a family of five little ones they crossed the plains to California by ox team settling first at Cloverdale. In 1868 they moved to the Maine Prairie country, and in 1875 to Capay, Yolo county. From Capay the family moved to Winters where she has been a resident twenty-two years. Her husband, at the advanced age of eighty years, died on May 12, 1911.

To them nine children were born, all of whom are living and were at the bedside when their mother passed away. The children are Mrs. Jennie Nissen, of Esparto; Mrs. L. E. Sturgill, of Oakland; Mrs. T. E. McFall, Mrs. Emma Conner, Mrs. A. L. Marshall, Miss Lulu Wyatt, M. O., F. M., and C. E. Wyatt, all of Winters. There are fifteen grandchildren living and six great-grandchildren.

The deceased was a member of the Christian church since childhood, and an active worker in the temperance cause. She, her husband and children have helped make history in Yolo county and have had an important part in its upbuilding.

Mrs. Wyatt was a fine type of Christian womanhood in whom domestic duties and ever day cares had each served a part in the development of mind and character. Her home was always a centre of hospitality, open to all, and she will be greatly missed by her loved ones and by all who knew her. While she will no more be seen in her accustomed place, the memory of her gentle presence abides with her children and co-workers like a benediction.

The funeral was held from the Christian church Friday afternoon. Rev. Frank Ford officiated, assisted by Rev. C. Culton. A large number attended the services, many being present from outside the county. The many floral offerings were beautiful, many coming from distant friends who could not be present.

VICTORY IS ASSURED.

Temperance workers have everything to encourage them. The last few years have witnessed a wonderful advance in public sentiment, and in law making and law enforcement against the liquor traffic and its attendant evils. The battle has been a long one, but it has been worth while, but it has not ended and will not be until every nation in the world has freed itself from the curse of alcohol.

While many so called "BOARD" companies failed to pay "Dollar for Dollar" every Mutual in the State has done so.

While all the so called "BOARD" companies stand for higher rates every Mutual has tried to reduce the cost of insurance.

While all the "BOARD" companies are operated for profit of the stockholders all the Mutuals are operated, not for the profit, but in the interests of the policy holders.

While "Board" companies pay, not less than 25 per cent of your premiums to their local agent as his commission all of your money paid the Mutual goes for the payment of losses. Think it over Mr. Farmer, think it over.
